

Please preserve the Wisconsin's No-Call List as it stands. Prior to this, my phone used to ring at least 10 times per day with telemarketers...most of the time no one was at the other end. It was very disruptive to our home. Now I can talk to family and friends without being interrupted by unwanted calls.